What people are saying about the book

"This is an unusual book. It is a collection of the sermons of a Religious of the Sisters of the Divine Savior. Sister Eschweiler has served as a pastoral associate in Mississippi and Michigan and these are samples of her best and favorite sermons to date.

Eschweiler's sermons are prefaced by an introduction which offers some very good advice to all homilists. She suggests that a good sermon will inspire and challenge the listener. The book is not for preachers alone. The author hopes the reading of her sermons will have the same effect as listening to them would. Sister Eschweiler had arranged her sermons broadly into several categories. The first group is printed under the title "About Love" and includes some wedding homilies. Many of her sermons are grouped around the liturgical calendar; i.e., Advent, Christmas, Ordinary Time, etc., and make very good seasonal spiritual reading.

The sermons are shorts. (Is she telling other homilists something?_ They are personal stories of the connection between her daily life and scripture readings.

I agree that the book has the potential for a broader readership than homilists".
